Alimentaria Exhibitor Area (AEX) 2026 Information

Use the online Alimentaria Exhibitor Area (AEX) found HERE to submit your entry in the Alimentaria Exhibitor and Product Catalogue and gain access to numerous services such as those described below.

You should have received your login credentials directly from the show organizer. If you have not received these credentials by December 15th, please contact admincatalogo@alimentaria.com.

Exhibitor and Product Catalogue

The catalogue is the main tool used by buyers to plan their visit and it guarantees visitors the best response to their needs. In this way, exhibitors can ensure that they make contact with interested trade professionals.

Recommend Program

Recommend your top clients or prospective customers to the organizers for inclusion in the hosted buyer or VIP buyer programs.

Send Invitations to Buyers

Included with your participation are a number of electronic invitations that can be sent to buyers for free access to the event.

Matchmaking System

Alimentaria 2026 offers exhibitors a free of charge online platform which allows you to consult the invited Hosted Buyers profiles, contact them through its own chat, and request meetings in advance.

Lead Retrieval Devices for Rental

Scan exhibitor badges and save detailed contact information with ease using mobile scanners.
